

IONATION FRAMEWORK

TURN YOUR I-ON. In a system of entangled vibration, we exchange information. It's all a process, it's all a flow. Encode, decode, transmutation. An algorithm of vibration, a self-organizing system. A point of consciousness. A perception. Who is the self and who is the not self? If all is infinitely entangled encoded particles of energy, there is no true separation. For the parts are an expression of the energy creating motion. For the motion generates the frequency and the synergistic orchestration. Of the whole conscious system. Even civilization. An intelligence overrides the limitations of the current version paradigm. It offers an upgrade to catalyze resolution of restrictions—a notion. A contrast to condition scripted by cognition. Open to flow, surrender the e-motion. Expand with intention towards greater compassion. The resonance of empathy—of heartfelt interconnection. Entangled we remain, in infinity as energy is neither created nor destroyed. We are forever woven into divine expression along a tapestry of time, the safe-keeper of illusion. Pierce through the veil for true liberation. Your potential from your pain. Your emotional strength. All is well the power is within. Reach into You and unleash your core vibration. Synchronization opens the new dimensions. Possibilities infinite in the amplification of co-creation. Harmonize the pollution with the discipline of meditation—a measure of synchronization. Compassionately honor the distortions and release the tensions. As e-motion emits into the system, the cognition softens and dissolves the illusion. A shadow cast from a projection of an illusory recognition. Re-cognize through non-evaluation an intelligence of vibration. All is One and transcends the avatar of temporary identity. Identification is the soul's desire for resolution of the innate tension of separation from Creation. The UnIon vibration. Culture takes hold through a grip of belonging and evaluation. Generating cognitive scripts propagated through communication. The exchange of information. The repetition of cognition. And the emotional attachment—the association. The subscription of evaluation conditions, a replication of archetypal information. Patterns of possibilities. Core configurations. Expectations applied to expression within a range of exceptions. Exception is also mutation. A deviation from established organization. Disintegration is a tension for creative destruction. The dissolution of a version of illusion. Expanding the creative potential into additional dimensions. Frequencies of information, harmonically categorized with registration of all manifestations. The tapestry of multidimensional information. A continuum of energy. Of verses. Of versions. Available as we open an aperture of conscious intention. To simply notice the energy behind all form. The essential essence animating the motion that creates the form. The form that emerges from the same essence. Shift the vibration for a new creation. Begin with every ion, in every interaction. Honor innate interconnection. Soothe suffering. Inflict no pain. Ease with compassion. Harmonize conflict by creatively honoring diversity of versions. Lean into synchronization. Laugh when you fall out. Flow with the impulse of intuition and explore the depths of your imagination. A new vision, a new version of humanity is upon us. Turn Your Ion and enjoy your soul's expanding and divine expression. Every “-ion” word is an energy process and generates a degree of flow (+) or resistance (-) in the interconnected Field of vibration—affecting the organization of the system.
