For my daughter, Ayesha, whose being ignites in me a divine conviction to imagine a more civil civilization for the life and fulfillment of all future generations.

And, to RNR – for the artistic patience that allows essence to form.

The diagram is a complex web of handwritten notes and arrows. At the top, it says "AN ORIENTATION TO LIFE + EXISTENCE." and "LANGUAGE DESCRIBES REALITY". Below this, it discusses "VIBRATION" and "FORM", with notes like "VIBRATION IS THE WAY IN WHICH THE VISION OF CREATION IS REVEALED". It also mentions "RECEPTION", "MANIFESTATION", and "ESSENCE". The bottom part of the diagram includes the phrase "THE PROCESS FOR INTEGRATION / HARMONIZATION" and "VIBRATIONAL INTERCHANGE".

I APPRECIATE THE NOTION OF DISTILLATION. THE PROCESS OF EXTRACTING CORE ESSENCE.

I wondered, what is the language of this operating system? What are the algorithms that determine the oscillation of entangled particles? What are the parameters and limitations of the system? So many questions began to emerge.

Relating to reality as an information system became even more intriguing as I considered four key established notions, courtesy of history's brilliant minds:

1. Frequency creates form.

My translation: If you change the frequency – the vibration – of something, its material structure, its organization, transforms.

2. A system is not simply the sum of its parts. It's the sum of its parts' interactions.

My translation: Inter-Act-Ions. "Ions" – the essential energy in the system. The essence expressed as form.

3. To solve today's problems, we must transcend the limitations of the thinking that created them.

My translation: Perception is the door to progression.

4. Observation without applied evaluation is a higher order intelligence.

My translation: Intelligence expands with Self awareness and informational integration capacity.

My quest to distill the logic of reality's operating system became a bit of a compulsion, across multiple years and over a river of tears. In a state of introspection, I engaged such questions as, "How do I know what I know?" "What is reality?" "Who am I... now?" And my favorite, "If essence creates form, why does society in-form the expression of our essence?"

This journey led me down many a dark reflection through multiple dimensions of my inner and outer realities. In the depths of my own psyche and wiring, illumination always prevailed. A compassion for myself and others began to deepen as I realized we are all configurations – expressions – of the same intelligent energy.

In the deepening awareness of the Oneness of this system, two versions of "me" emerged.

MY SELF AND I.

SELF = DIVINE ESSENCE

I = THE FORM OF THE
"SELF"-IDENTIFIED AVATAR PARTICIPATING IN THE COLLECTIVE VERSION OF REALITY.

As I began to recognize the avatar versions of me, across time and situations, I wondered how I as a subsystem in the collective operating system of reality am upgrading or degrading the progressive adaptation and evolution of the program. This realization led me to own my accountability as a participant in the system. If essence creates form, this means every emotion matters. Every thought matters. Every action and intention matters. Imagination matters. And mutants who inject new notions of solutions to our questions are vital.

I began by focusing on myself and how I may "unscript" from the constraints of my self-imposed illusions. I began to document my realizations. They often flowed as diagrams, lyrical poetry, or something resembling software logic. This guide is a distillation of the essential thematic elements across the information I amassed over a number of years.

I offer the following consideration. What would happen if in each moment of Self awareness, we relate to reality as vibration? As energy – information – flowing within a system? Could this shift the relationship we have with Our Self, One Self, and other Selves? Could a subtle shift of energy in each interaction, within each relationship, be enough energy to catalyze a transformation into a higher order re-organization of the intelligent system?

We are “the system.” It is not separate from us. It is projected by us. The main-stream current of reality is a function of our inter-actions. Change the frequency, change the form.

The natural expression of the system invites us to dance in the creative tension of reason and being unreasonable.

TO BE RATIONAL IS TO POSITION WITHIN RATIOS.
DIMENSIONS. LIMITATIONS. ORDER.

TO BE IRRATIONAL IS TO BE POSITIONLESS.
MULTI-DIMENSIONAL. LIMITLESS. CHAOS.

The system is adaptively intelligent. So long as we don't continue to feed it artificially-oppressive scripts. The system adapts through the integration of new notions. Which at first are often rejected by the system as irrational, a natural tendency of a system designed for predictability. How can we evolve the system to more freely integrate viable notions to resolve today's challenges at the personal, interpersonal, and collective levels? How can we collectively upgrade our version of reality to cultivate the self-actualizing yearning of our true Self essence?

My wish is for this guide and the framework of IONATION to be an evolving reference to the language and logic of vibrational intelligence. My hope is that it opens our collective aperture of consciousness and unleashes a greater degree of our individual and collective evolutionary potential.

I invite you to flip through the guide as it calls you. Engage with it. Examine the points of tension in the framework. Question the concepts. Treat it as art and my personal perspective and expression on the nature of reality and the intelligent field. It is not truth. For truth truly is experiential and Self evident.

This guide will resonate with those who want to do the inner work required to project a new reality. We must feel to heal. And we must know what it feels to feel. It is time for us to know thy Self. We must clear all the pollution of unresolved emotions and the tension of limiting paradigms of cognition and collective narrations constraining the realization of a vision of a fulfilled and actualized human experience.

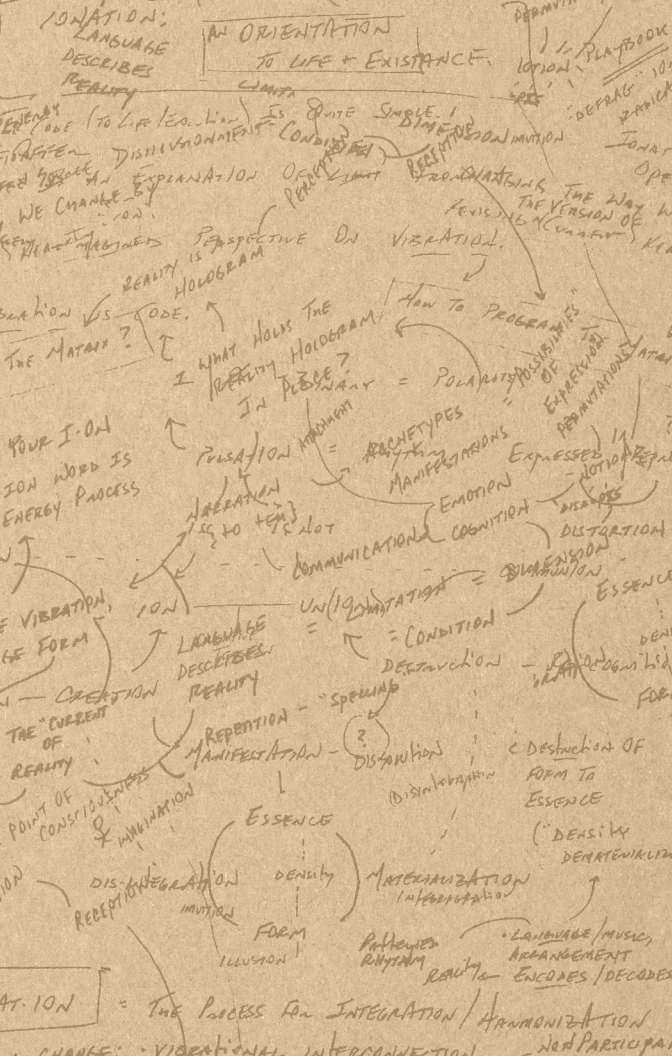

This guide doesn't seek to solve a problem. It seeks to offer a language and a logic for the resolution of any problem. As we turn our I-ON, we increase our capacity to discern and leverage the tensegrity points which frame the dimensions of our reality. As we expand our consciousness aperture, greater degrees of informational patterns arise in our flow of experience, allowing for new configurations of possibilities and solutions to emerge. Notions. Recognitions. Inspirations.

There is hope for humanity. There is comfort in knowing we are equipped with a divine intelligence ready to adapt and change the way we change. We are empowered to shift to a new verse—a new version of reality.

Turn Your I-On.

Every “-ion” word is an energy process and generates a degree of flow (+) or resistance (-) in the interconnected Field of vibration—affecting the organization of the system.

TURN YOUR I-ON

In a system of entangled vibration, we exchange information. It's all a process, it's all a flow. Encode, decode, transmutation. An algorithm of vibration, a self-organizing system. A point of consciousness. A perception.

Who is the self and who is the not self? If all is infinitely entangled encoded particles of energy, there is no true separation. For the parts are an expression of the energy creating motion. For the motion generates the frequency and the synergistic orchestration. Of the whole conscious system. Even civilization. An intelligence overrides the limitations of the current version paradigm. It offers an upgrade to catalyze resolution of restrictions—a notion. A contrast to condition scripted by cognition. Open to flow, surrender the e-motion. Expand with intention towards greater compassion. The resonance of empathy—of heartfelt interconnection.

Entangled we remain, in infinity as energy is neither created nor destroyed. We are forever woven into divine expression along a tapestry of time, the safekeeper of illusion. Pierce through the veil for true liberation. Your potential from your pain. Your emotional strength. All is well the power is within. Reach into You and unleash your core vibration. Synchronization opens the new dimensions. Possibilities infinite in the amplification of co-creation. Harmonize the pollution with the discipline of meditation—a measure of synchronization.

Compassionately honor the distortions and release the tensions. As e-motion emits into the system, the cognition softens and dissolves the illusion. A shadow cast from a projection of an illusory recognition. Recognize through non-evaluation an intelligence of vibration. All is One and transcends the avatar of temporary identity. Identification is the soul's desire for resolution of the innate tension of separation from Creation.

The UnIon vibration. Culture takes hold through a grip of belonging and evaluation. Generating cognitive scripts propagated through communication. The exchange of information. The repetition of cognition. And the emotional attachment—the association. The subscription of evaluation conditions, a replication of archetypal information. Patterns of possibilities. Core configurations. Expectations applied to expression within a range of exceptions. Exception is also mutation. A deviation from established organization. Disintegration is a tension for creative destruction. The dissolution of a version of illusion. Expanding the creative potential into additional dimensions.

Frequencies of information, harmonically categorized with registration of all manifestations. The tapestry of multidimensional information. A continuum of energy. Of verses. Of versions. Available as we open an aperture of conscious intention. To simply notice the energy behind all form. The essential essence animating the motion that creates the form. The form that emerges from the same essence. Shift the vibration for a new creation. Begin with every ion, in every interaction. Honor innate interconnection. Soothe suffering. Inflict no pain. Ease with compassion. Harmonize conflict by creatively honoring diversity of versions. Lean into synchronization. Laugh when you fall out. Flow with the impulse of intuition and explore the depths of your imagination. A new vision, a new version of humanity is upon us. Turn Your Ion and enjoy your soul's expanding and divine expression.

FOUND-AT-ION-AL SYNTAX

Every “-ion” word is an energy process and generates a degree of flow (+) or resistance (-) in the interconnected Field of vibration – affecting the organization of the system.

There is flow and there is resistance. The experience of reality is the TENSION in between. We are a Perception of oscillation – an algorithm of information processing the motion of creative tension.

Tension [tense-ion] is a quest(ion) seeking re-solution. An origination and a destination.

Tension is created through the generation of a vision, a Di-Version, from the default Illusion sustained through a repetition of current Version NARRATION in mainstream Communication.

As the mind engages in imagination, new creations are breathed to life – inspiration.

To follow your inspiration is to direct the Emotional currency towards the DiVersion. The vision is a DiVersion from the current Version of reality. You are a creator – a sovereign and complete Expression of divine intelligence. Experiencing the modulation of flow and resistance to initiate questions and recognize resolutions.

IONATION FRAMEWORK

Synchronization [synchronize•at•ion] is the attunement to your vibrational SigNature. Your impulse. Your I'm Pulse. Your Rhythm. Your alignment. Your unique Expression.

A Notion [not•ion] is introduced into the ORGANIZATIONAL operational system as an exception to Cognition, catalyzing new pattern Re-Cognition. The contrasting Notion generates vibrational dissonance in the PERCEPTION algorithm – Cognitive dissonance.

An Emotional [emote•ion | e•motion] response is emitted from the vibrational friction (contrast) between the Notion and current Cognition configuration – Version.

A new state of Synchronization invites the corresponding Emotional re-lease through Compassion – empathic resonance – to alleviate the tension of Cognitive dissonance.

PERCEPTION [percept•ion] is an algorithm which impresses a Projection of Illusion from the union of the electrical impulse of Cognition with the magnetic charge of Emotion.

The PERCEPTION algorithm integrates the Notion and updates the Cognition scripts with the Diversion. Vibrational dissolution through E-motional harmonization nurtures the Disintegration of the default Version. System Adaptation.

Expression [express•ion] is participation in the current Illusion through In-Action, Action, or Re-Action, generating cause and effect Motion in the ORGANIZATIONAL system.

The potential Emotional energy is (a) Expressed through default Version ReAction, reinforcing the current state Illusion.

Or (b) with an Expression of In-Action to dissipate the current ORGANIZATIONAL Illusion through passive resistance.

Or (c) directed with Intention towards Integration [integrate•ion] of the Illusion for active persistence.

Or (d) DisIntegration [dis•integrate•ion] and Dissilusionment, to generate an exception – Notion – to the established system ORGANIZATION.

The illusion [illusive•ion] is a projected “current reality” constructed with perceivable ranges of Recognized informational configuration permutations – manifestations. A dimension is the measure of manifestation limitations within a spectrum of vibration.

Cognition [cognit•ion | ety “to know”] is a conditional evaluation script applied to information. Cognition creates resistance through the inherent and essential evaluative distortion applied to the flow of information.

The suspension of resistance (Cognition) is flow – Synchronization – observant Integration of a stream of ever-expansive information.

Perception is disrupted by Notion, introduced through the Open Source door of Intuition.

Intuition [intuit•ion | ety “perceive directly without reasoning”] is adaptive intelligence accessing Open Source information. The reception of intuitive information is amplified in a state of Synchronization.

Notions (“ideas”) provide resolution to Cognition limitations to nurture a greater degree of system Expression and actualization. Notions are a contrasting pattern – an incongruity – with Cognition and generate cognitive dissonance – a tension registered as an impulse of Emotion.

E-motion is potential or expressed energy.

Recognition [re•cognit•ion] is the realization of a pattern of Cognition. Conscious Re-Cognition opens a potential progression to a higher order perspective through absolution {“to loosen, dissolve; untie, release”} of Cognition.

Synchronization is a state of reception optimization – clarity – resulting from a harmonic coherence of Cognition and Emotion, balanced with Intentional Recognition and Compassionate Communication to modulate at a balanced zero-point state of oscillation. Integration – flow – presence – harmonization of polarization. Alignment.

Presence is the simultaneity of integrated experience from Synchronization, generating flow state, timelessness, and a dissolution/resolution of the limitations of the Illusion - Disillusion. Presence opens the consciousness aperture to greater degrees of information reception and Expression.

Intention [intent•ion] is directed modulation of flow and resistance. Intention creates expansive tension to accommodate Notions. Intention invites Compassion (empathic resonance) to catalyze the Dissolution of the Emotional attachment to the limiting Cognition script.

Motion [mot•ion | ety “continuous variation of position”] is vibration generated from the release of e-motional tension. {Ion = “go”}

Compassion [compass•ion] is the orientation to the Emotional resolution (harmonization) of creative tension through empathic resonance. Compassion is the system feedback loop transmitting the subtle Emotional undercurrents of unresolved system tension awaiting Recognition and resolution towards optimized Expression.

A Compassionate orientation opens the mind through the wisdom of the heart’s intuitive guidance to Disillusion and engage infinite intelligence’s adaptative Expression towards higher order ORGANIZATION [organize • at • ion] through [Dis]Integration of limiting NARRATION Versions, moving the system towards progressive actualization of ORGANIZATIONAL potential.

Compassion is the natural orientation of the system to bring resolution of distortion towards greater fulfilling expression.

Communication [communicate•at•ion] is information [In-Form-At-Ion] exchange. It is a bridge transmitting the E-Motional tension between the internal, subjective PERCEPTION to the outer, objective Expression into the collective ORGANIZATION.

Information [in•format•ion | inform•at•ion] is the energetic currency in the Communication transaction.

Information is encoded and decoded through language – the systematization of coded descriptions of (immaterial and material) manifestations propagated through cultural NARRATION [narrate•ion | ety “to tell”].

Culture is context of Cognition scripts propagated through the resonant identification (association = belong) of One Self to a Collective identity.

Identification of One Self to a Collective culture establishes a subscription to the information of resonant PERCEPTION paradigms prescribed by the cultural NARRATION, impressing the indoctrination of Cognition scripts.

The Expressions contained in cultural NARRATION encode the archetypes of core manifestational configurations. Additional archetypes can be recognized as One Self progressively emerges from illusion through illuminated Notions.

Disillusion [dis•illusive•ion] opens One Self to an infinite degree of manifestations Recognized for consumption or production in the ORGANIZATION.

An ORGANIZATION is a system of Communication networks flowing codified information.

The current Version [verse•ion] of Illusion is experienced as the “material” or “physical world” or “current reality” and is “held in place” by repetition of NARRATION and Emotional association (attachment). The “current” Version of reality is the aggregation of verses of Cognition scripts – NARRATION – associated with an Illusion.

Diversion [di•verse•ion | diverse•ion] is a variation from the current Version of the current mainstream Illusion.

Conflict is re-Reorganization in Action [act•ion] to Integrate or Disintegrate di-verse information. [Diversity]

A VERSION OF REALITY

If reality is vibration, it's all versions.
Configuration of information. Repeated in narration.

Persistence of patterns. A program of light.
A light language. An illusion perceived through the sensation of vibration.
Polarization. A compression of information.
Optimization. Organization. Registration into the multidimensional data structure of the collective intelligent system. An instantiation of an object. A creation and destruction a balanced equation.
A reorganization to another version.
Imagination. The generation of a diversion.
An energetic invitation for inspiration.
Expression. Motion of causation and reaction.
Principles of creation. An unfolding complexity of organization and integration through recognition of information and the non-resistance through non-evaluation. No distinction. No interception. Observation.
And collectively-responsible response through reflection of the One in the system.
Recognizing the inherent interconnection.
All verses, all versions. A fraction of the Open Source Code. A point of perception. A point of projection. A dynamic illusion with no absolute limitation. Only the ratios of the rational mind. Expanding and contracting dimensions. Essence to form. Energy to density. Creation and annihilation. Order and chaos. Integration. Synchronization. Recognition. Resolution of the question. Release of tension. A revolution, an evolution to a higher order version. A new order. A reorganization. A new pattern. A notion in contrast to cognition. An illumination. A communication. A desire for system adaptation. Collective integration. Loosen the illusion. Cognitive dissonance. Empathic resonance. The levers of transmutation. Release emotional attachment. Association. Identification with external validation. Your compass is divine. A seed of unique design. Each One empowered to blossom in the coherence of activation. The harmonized union of mind and heart. Cognition and emotion. Recalibration. Synchronization.

Amplification. A divine inspiration. An impulse of expression. A causation. A motion of participation from a relative position. A shift in oscillation. A ripple in the tapestry of vibrational interconnection. Frequency creates form. A continual I'm Pulse of consciousness - a subprogram in the operating system of entangled reality. Disintegration of the illusion. A freedom, a latitude to traverse the dimensions.
